

The Bible Society of South Africa invites applications for

HEAD: BIBLE TRANSLATION Head Office, Bellville

Key performance areas: Strategic planning of Bible translation projects in the official languages of SA - Training, guiding and managing of translation teams - Translation checking - Academic research - Departmental management - Answering queries

Minimum requirements: Mother tongue speaker (Afrikaans and English excluded) of one of the other official languages - Masters degree (preferably doctorate) in linguistics or Biblical languages or Biblical studies – Qualification and good knowledge of New Testament Greek and Biblical Hebrew - Training in linguistics - Knowledge of translation theory and practice - Ability to work meticulously - Good interpersonal skills, especially the ability to work in cross-cultural teams - Good communication and teaching skills - Computer literacy – Committed Christian with a passion for the Bible cause

Recommendations: Good knowledge of other official languages – Qualification in cross-cultural studies – Practical experience in translation, translation checking, language editing and proofreading - Familiarity with the publishing process - Management and administrative experience

Commencement of service: 1 January 2010

Remuneration: We offer a competitive remuneration package

Applications with CV to:

Human Resources Manager
Bible Society of South Africa
P O Box 5500
Tyger Valley, 7536
Fax: 021 910 8799
E-mail: personnel@biblesociety.co.za

Closing date: 7 August 2009

Selected candidates will be invited for a personal interview.

goeie nuus vir almal vir altyd
good news for all for ever