

Inhoud

Contents

J.S. du Toit: “At my mother’s knee”: the Psalms, the production of cultural memory and the cross generational transfer of the canon	341-360
A. Evans: a practical approach to methodological considerations in interpreting the Bible for children	361-375
J.W. Gericke: Possible analogies for imagining folk-philosophies in ancient Israelite religion	376-401
D.T. Adamo &amp; E.F. Eghubare: The African queen: Queen of Sheba	402-420
J.E. Marston: Akhenaten: a woman, a eunuch, a victim of pathology or a religious representation?	421-464
J.A. Loader: On שׁוּב, שְׁבִית and שְׁבוּת in Psalm 85	465-480
S.J. Claassens: The so-called “Mesopotamian law codes”. What’s in a name?	481-498
J.N. Mavinga: The influence of the spirit world on African leadership. A contextual reading of 1 Samuel 28:1-25	499-526
S.P. Nolte &amp; P.J. Jordaan: Susanna : a story of dangerous spaces	527-547
R. Scharneck: The demarcation of the first periscope of Joel in Hebrew and Greek manuscripts. A comparison of ancient and modern scholars	548-565
E.B. Farisani: The ethnic tensions between the Edomites and the Israelites in Obadiah	566-583
N.J. van Blerk: The manifestation of justice in ancient Egyptian law, with specific reference to The tale of the eloquent peasant	584-598
A.M. Smith: From Murex shells to purple cloth	599-611
A. Andrason: The “guessing” qatal . The Biblical Hebrew suffix conjugation as a manifestation of the evidentiary trajectory	612-636
M. Suna, M.A.E. Dockrat, J.F.J. van Rensburg: Al-Tawbah 9:24. Lexical comments by ten consecutive classical interpreters (tenth to sixteenth century)	637-649
B.A.S. Patel &amp; M.A.E. Dockrat: The pronunciation of the hidden ʾ – an evaluation of the Ilāhābādī and classical views	650-660
J.P. Monferrer-Sala: Plumbing the depths. Sidelights and strategies of the medieval Christian Arab translators	661-697